

HEINLEIN GENEALOGY

Johann James "Jim" Heinlein (1879 to 1953)
Barbette Winkler Heinlein, first wife (1880 to 1920)

Elizabeth Heinlein Pfeiffer (1902 to 1996)
Albert J. Pfeiffer, husband (1893 to 1970)

Elizabeth Heinlein, born 1902, "Adopted" Daughter of James Heinlein and Barbara Winkler

Elizabeth Heinlein was born on 29 April 1902 in Abtsgreuth, Bavaria, Germany. It appears she was the illegitimate daughter of Barbara Winkler (Document 21). Thus, she was Barbara's daughter, but not James's. He may have adopted her after he married her mother, but he may just have given her his surname. In any event, he clearly helped raise her.

Elizabeth married Albert J. Pfeiffer around 1924. She and Albert appear together in the 1930 census, living in Findlay, Allegheny County, Pennsylvania (Document 23). They had two children, named Karl C., age 4, and Robert J., age 2, and Elizabeth's brother, Adolph M. Heinlein, was living with them, as well. Albert worked as a laborer on a general farm, had immigrated to America from Germany in 1923, and was naturalized. Elizabeth's year of immigration was given as 1905.

By the time of the 1940 census, Elizabeth and Albert had two more children, Eleanor, age 7, and Leonard, age 1 (Document 24). These appear to be the only children Elizabeth had. She passed away on 15 February 1996 in Pittsburgh and was buried in Robinson Run Cemetery in McDonald, Allegheny County, with her husband (Document 25).
