

HEINLEIN GENEALOGY

Former Greater Pittsburgh International Airport Terminal

A view at one of the abandoned parking lots at the old airport through one of the many chain-link fencing that was in place (October 1998) technology (digital or cell phone cameras) back then. If you have any photos or history you'd like to share about the old airport terminal, leave a comment or send us an e-mail. I'd like to expand this feature as time goes on.

Access to the old terminal was pretty easy as many of the old parking lots were not closed off. The entrance from the Airport Parkway was still open. I don't think you would have seen that lax of security at the old terminal today. (October 1998)