

HEINLEIN GENEALOGY

Anna Margareta Heinlein Trautman (1897 to 1993)
George Jacob Trautman (husband, 1894 to 1974)George Warren Trautman

George was born 27 January 1928. He served as a parachutist for the Army after WWII and then began working with Bell Telephone Company. Prior to retirement, he was a longtime member of the Union United Presbyterian Church in Robinson, Pennsylvania, but after retirement he moved to South Carolina and became active with the Aveleigh Presbyterian Church in Newberry. He died peacefully on 23 May 2018. He was married to his wife Helen for 66 years and had Denny and Debby Trautman, their children.

- Denny Trautman, married Debbie and had four children:
  - Brandon Trautman
  - Kristen Trautman, married Cory Nelson
  - Jehnna Trautman
  - Victoria Trautman
- Debby Trautman, married Pete Greenlaw and had two children:
  - Brian Greenlaw, married Kathy and had two children:
    - Dale Greenlaw
    - Cheyanne Greenlaw
  - Matthew Greenlaw, married Amanda and had three children:
    - Amelia Greenlaw
    - Camille Greenlaw
    - Luke Greenlaw

David A. Trautman

Born 8 October 1932, David was the youngest child of George Jacob Trautman and Anna Margareta Heinlein. He was an active member of Montours Presbyterian Church in Oakdale, Pennsylvania, until he moved in 1985, when he joined the New Wilmington Presbyterian Church. He married Margaret Ann Campbell in 1952 and had four children: Kenneth David, Diane, Karen, and Joy. He also has eleven grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren, but those individuals have not been identified in the current session.