

1794088781

TEMPLE UNIVERSITY
IDENTIFICATION CARD

EDWARD HEINLEIN

1
179-40-8878

FALL 1979

Signature Edward E. Heinlein
Ink Please

Carry and present this card as identification for all University activities.
NOT TRANSFERABLE
DO NOT LAMINATE.

Colonial School District
Dr. Ernest Dyson, Supt. (B)
January 30, 1975

Permanent Teaching Certificate (page 2)

VALIDITY OF CERTIFICATES

EMERGENCY CERTIFICATE. Expires on June 30 following the date of issuance.

INTERN CERTIFICATE. Valid for the period of time necessary for the candidate to complete the intern program but in no case shall this exceed three years.

INSTRUCTIONAL I CERTIFICATE (PROVISIONAL). Valid for three years of teaching in Pennsylvania.

EDUCATIONAL SPECIALIST I CERTIFICATE (PROVISIONAL). Valid for three years of professional service in Pennsylvania in the area of specialization.

SUPERVISORY I CERTIFICATE (PROVISIONAL). Valid for three years of supervisory service in Pennsylvania.

ADMINISTRATIVE I CERTIFICATE (PROVISIONAL). Valid for three years of administrative service in Pennsylvania.

RENEWAL OF CERTIFICATES

EMERGENCY CERTIFICATE. Not renewable or transferable from one school district to another.

INTERN CERTIFICATE. Not renewable or transferable from one school district to another.

INSTRUCTIONAL I CERTIFICATE. Renewable for three years upon completion of 12 semester hours of collegiate work. The 12 semester credit hour requirement may be satisfied, in whole or in part, through in-service programs approved by the Secretary of Education. Work taken at two-year institutions is not acceptable.

(College Provisional Certificates issued prior to July, 1969 may be renewed for three years as follows:

1. If the baccalaureate degree was received prior to October, 1959, 6 semester credit hours of post-baccalaureate collegiate work or approved in-service work are required.
2. If the baccalaureate degree was received between October, 1959 and October, 1963, 12 semester credit hours of post-baccalaureate collegiate work or approved in-service work are required.)

EDUCATIONAL SPECIALIST I. Same requirements as Instructional I.

SUPERVISORY I CERTIFICATE. Not renewable.

ADMINISTRATIVE I CERTIFICATE. Not renewable.

MAKING CERTIFICATES PERMANENT

EMERGENCY CERTIFICATE. Cannot be made permanent.

INTERN CERTIFICATE. Cannot be made permanent.

INSTRUCTIONAL I CERTIFICATE. Is converted to Instructional II (Permanent) status by completing three years of satisfactory service and 24 semester credit hours of post-baccalaureate collegiate work in accordance with paragraph 49.84 of the certification regulations.

(College Provisional Certificates issued prior to July, 1969 may be converted to permanent status as follows:

1. If the baccalaureate degree was received prior to October, 1959, 6 post-baccalaureate credits and three years of satisfactory teaching on the provisional certificate in the subject area are required.
2. If the baccalaureate degree was received between October, 1959 and October, 1963, 12 post-baccalaureate credits and three years of satisfactory teaching on the provisional certificate in the subject area are required.

In any case the credit requirements can be satisfied in whole or in part, through in-service programs approved by the Secretary of Education.)

EDUCATIONAL SPECIALIST I CERTIFICATE. Converted to the Educational Specialist II (Permanent) by completing three years of satisfactory service on an Educational Specialist I certificate and 24 semester credit hours of post-baccalaureate work in accordance with paragraph 49.104 of the certification regulations. The credit requirement may be satisfied, in whole or in part, through in-service programs approved by the Secretary of Education.

SUPERVISORY I CERTIFICATE (PROVISIONAL). Converted to the Supervisory II Certificate (Permanent) by completing three years of satisfactory experience on a Supervisory I Certificate.

ADMINISTRATIVE I CERTIFICATE (PROVISIONAL). The Administrative I Certificate may be converted to the Administrative II Certificate (Permanent) by completing three years of satisfactory experience on an Administrative I Certificate.

COLLEGIATE CREDIT ACCEPTABLE FOR CONVERTING ANY LEVEL I CERTIFICATE (PROVISIONAL) TO A LEVEL II CERTIFICATE (PERMANENT). All post-baccalaureate credits must be earned at a state approved baccalaureate degree-granting institution. Credits earned in programs designed to prepare for professional fields such as law, medicine, or theology, when relevant to the area of certification, will be considered acceptable.

WHEN PRACTICAL, CERTIFICATION REQUESTS SHOULD BE SUBMITTED TO THE PENNSYLVANIA DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION THROUGH THE DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE.