Testimonials

“The last year, Ed has worked extensively supporting me on the development of my family history and genealogy. He has translated the book, Würzburg—ein Heimatbuch written by Walter Weidmann, which is the village where my family originated. In addition, he developed the contacts and scheduled a week's trip to Germany. On the trip, Ed served as a translator, as a tour guide, and as an advisor for not only the genealogy research, but also daily life in Germany. Because of Ed, the trip was an outstanding success, and we hope to return in the near future.
