

HEINLEIN GENEALOGY

Elsie Heinlein Eberle (1893 to 1930)
Henry Eberle (husband, 1891 to 1961)

Elsie M. Heinlein

The first born of Michael Heinlein and Wilhelmina Teepe's children was Elsie, who was born in June 1893. Elsie married Henry J. Eberle, who was the pastor of Meridale Christ Lutheran Church. Together, they had two sons and a daughter: Ruth, Roger, and a son who died in infancy. Her children were still young when Elsie passed away on 29 September 1930.

Ruth A. Eberle

Ruth lived a life full of adventure. She was born 20 June 1922 and later married David Boughton at the age of 51. According to her obituary, she "served in the U.S. Army during World War II as a captain in the Nursing Corps" and "was held briefly as a prisoner of war by the Germans during her time in Europe." After that, she spent 10 years in India as a nurse and missionary. Returning to the U.S., she then worked for Eager Lutheran Hospital in Brookline, New York, until retiring. She was actively involved in committees and boards revolving around St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church of Connoquenessing. She died on 26 May 2015 and left no descendants of her own but had many loving cousins.

Roger Allan Eberle

Born 9 October 1923, Roger worked as a respiratory therapist and was also a member and former custodian for Zion Lutheran Church in Brentwood. He died 10 February 2001 and never married or had children.