

HEINLEIN GENEALOGY

Herbert Henry Heinlein (1916 to 2006)
 Thelma Rose "Mick" Smith Heinlein (wife, 1918 to 2006)

Thelma Rose "Mick" Heinlein, 88, a resident of Clinton, formerly of Moon Township, died at her residence surrounded by her loving family on Saturday, Nov. 11, 2006.

She was born in Moon Township, Pa., on July 19, 1918, and was a daughter of the late Joseph and Mae (Alder) Smith. Thelma was the past owner of the Ponderosa Golf Course with her husband, Herbert. She was in the first graduating class of Moon Township Area High School in 1936. The first year at the school they had a contest on naming the yearbook; Thelma named it the Flame and to this day, it is still called that. She was also a cheerleader for that first Moon Township class, and a member of the Clinton United Presbyterian Church, where she was a member of their bowling and golf leagues. Thelma was an avid golfer and received two holes in one in her lifetime.
