Our researcher in Germany received a response from the Protestant Parish in Münchsteinach, Bavaria stating that Johann Heinlein (born 10 April 1836 in Schornweisach), a day laborer in Abtsgreuth, married Margarethe Wacker in Münchsteinach on 25 June 1865. They did not provide a copy of this record. The entry went on to say that Johann was the son of the farmer and tailor, Leonhard Heinlein, originally from Kleinweisach, and his wife, Margarethe Elisabetha Kolb from Schornweisach. Margaretha Wacker was born 4 April 1838 in Gleissenberg, the daughter of Michael Wacker, master barrel maker, and his wife, Kunigunda (whose maiden name was not given).
