Manford Jones, traveled to more than 60 countries

Manford G. (“Red” of Rusty”) Jones, 84, died June 17 2004.

Mr. Jones was born in Chicago and grew up on a farm in Indiana before coming to Pittsburgh to live with his aunt and grandparents after his mother died when he was 10.

He served four years in the Army Air Corps during World War II and then served three years in the Army Reserves.

He earned bachelor’s and masters degrees from the University of Pittsburgh and worked as a banker, claims adjuster and as an industrial engineer Bethlehem Steel.

He finally worked for the Pittsburgh Symphony.

He was a lover of history, Shakespeare, geography and travel, having traveled in more than 60 countries.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by three brothers, Henry, John and Ellwood Jones.

He is survived by his beloved wife of 56 years, Marjorie Heinlein Jones; children Kevin Jones and his wife, Holly, of Valencia and Alyson Jones Carlson and her husband, Todd, of Meadville; and by six grandchildren.

Mr. Jones was member of Mt. Nebo Presbyterian Church, where a service was held, followed by burial in the church cemetery.

Friends were received at Copeland’s Coraopolis Funeral Home.
