(November 15, 1993)

Dear Aunt Gert,

Later this morning I will be going to a committee meeting for my fiftieth high school class reunion. Where has the time gone! It makes one realize how precious this upcoming Christmas season is in being able to send good wishes to our friends again.

Ours has been another good year in which we were able to travel. In May we visited the Mall of America in Bloomington, MN. In August, Hawaii^{and} just last week we returned from an enlightening trip to Scotland, England^{and} Wales. All the history there just boggles my mind. In Wales we were able to visit the town that my maternal grandfather left for America about one hundred twenty-five years ago.

Kevin^{and} Holly are hard at work on their home in Butler county. Amy started school this year. Stevie is more like his daddy every day^{and} Danny is being a cute, happy little twenty month old. Alyson^{and} Todd are happy in Meadville. Lauren in third grade is taking violin lessons on the violin I played as an elementary school student. Keith is enjoying kindergarten^{and} Erin is more like her mother every day. We are so fortunate to have such a wonderful family to love.

We had a family picture taken this summer^{and} I want you to have one to see how the grandchildren are growing.

We think of you often^{and} hope you have a blessed Christmas season.

Love,
Marjorie
