Eric Axel Johnson (husband, 1906 to 1965)

Dear Lou:

Received your letter and thinks it would be nice to have a reunion if possible.
I didn't understand if you wanted me to return this form with the year of the birthdates but sent it just in case.
You can keep it as it is not necessary to send it back. I had to the dates on a bracelet they brought me, or I would would not have known them. I hope you and Ed have luck in getting the information. It's nice of him to do what he is doing and also good of you to help him.

We are having a big time around here today on account of the football game. At noon the dining room was all decorated with the colors of both teams and our table cloths, place settings napkins and menus were all colors. Our helpers all wore sweaters also in all colors. Balloons galore at supper tonight they are televising the game and we aren't for a big time.
