Ruth A. Eberle

Ruth lived a life full of adventure. She was born 20 June 1922 and later married David Boughton at the age of 51. According to her obituary, she “served in the U.S. Army during World War II as a captain in the Nursing Corps” and “was held briefly as a prisoner of war by the Germans during her time in Europe.” After that, she spent 10 years in India as a nurse and missionary. Returning to the U.S., she then worked for Eager Lutheran Hospital in Brookline, New York, until retiring. She was actively involved in committees and boards revolving around St. John's Evangelical Lutheran Church of Connoquenessing. She died on 26 May 2015 and left no descendants of her own but had many loving cousins.
